APRIL 4TH, 2021 EASTER SUNDAY THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

In today's Gospel, Mark reports the names of three women who go to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body. They are Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary, the mother of James. According to Mark, these are the same women who were among those watching Jesus' Crucifixion from a distance. Mark reports that these women were followers of Jesus in Galilee and that they ministered to him. Mark also reports that Mary Magdalene and Mary observed where Jesus' body was laid. After his death, these women come again to minister to Jesus.

Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary, the mother of James, go to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body. It is clear from Mark's report of their conversation that they had not worked out all the necessary details. They know that a very large stone was used to seal Jesus' tomb, but they do not know how they are going to remove it. When they arrive at the tomb, they find that the stone has already been rolled back. Upon entering the tomb, they meet an angel who tells them that Jesus has been raised from the dead. The angel then recalls Jesus' promise to his disciples that he would go before them to Galilee.

Amazement would seem to be a natural reaction to the experience that the women had that morning. Yet the angel chides them for being amazed. Perhaps the reason is found in the words that follow, as the angel reminds them that Jesus himself had told his disciples that he would see them again in Galilee. If the women had listened and heeded Jesus' words, they would not have been surprised to find the tomb empty. This highlights a theme of Mark's Gospel: the disciples of Jesus are often clueless about the true identity of Jesus and confounded by his message to them.

Nonetheless, we can find some hope for the disciples, just as there is hope for us when we find ourselves unsure about Jesus. The disciples in today's Gospel were faithful followers of Jesus and remained present through Jesus' death on the cross. In fact, they came to the tomb that morning expecting to minister to Jesus once again. Instead, they were sent to minister in a different way, as apostles to Peter and the other disciples. Because we hear this Gospel proclaimed today, we know that they honored Jesus by accepting this mission.

Alleluia Alleluia Alleluia

The strife is over the battle done
 The victory of life is won
 The song of triumph has begun
 The powers of death have done their worst
 But Christ their legions has dispersed
 Let shouts of holy joy outburst
 The three sad days are quickly sped
 He rises glorious from the dead
 All glory to our risen Head!
 Alleluia!

To All our Parishioners

The view from where you stand

Imagine yourself in Jerusalem marketplace Easter afternoon. An amazing story is circulating. That teacher who was crucified on Friday, his body is missing! People readily share the "facts" they'd seen for themselves: a rock rolled aside, a discarded pile of linens, no body inside. Listen as questions rattle past: Where did the body go? Who took it? Was it stolen, hidden, revived? This is one for Jerusalem's edition of Ripley's Believe It or Not. Suspicious glances are cast in every direction of a city square filled with believers, believers in an empty tomb. Now step inside the upper room where a different story is being told. Prayers and mourning has given way to celebration, The Messiah has risen! Scripture fulfilled, salvation has come to the world. The painful events of Friday's crucifixion have melted into a miracle of resurrection giving new hope to Jesus' followers. Suddenly they are energized: there is great work to do, a world to reach with the good news! Eyes filled with love and hope beam from every face in a room filled with believers, believers in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Where would you choose to stand?
