JUNE 20th, 2021 TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Life is like a boat, exposed to a myriad of dangers; temptations, occasions to sin, bad counsels of men, passions of corrupt nature, etc. Never lose confidence – when temptations arise, keep your eyes on God, who alone can deliver us.

When you have to listen to abuse, that means you are being buffeted by the wind. When your anger is roused, you are being tossed by the waves. So when the winds blow and the waves mount high, the boat is in danger, your heart is imperilled, your heart is taking a battering. On hearing yourself insulted, you long to retaliate; but the joy of revenge brings with it another kind of misfortune – shipwreck. Why this? Because Christ is asleep in you. What do I mean? I mean you have forgotten His presence. Rouse Him, then; remember Him, let Him keep watch within you, pay heed to Him. A temptation arises: it is the wind. It disturbs you: it is the surging of the sea. This is the moment to awaken Christ and let Him remind you of those words: ‘Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?’

Sacred Heart of Jesus Pastoral Letter & Resources Available

Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto are encouraged to read Cardinal Collins’ latest Pastoral Letter, “Heart Speaks to Heart”, a deep reflection on the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Visit www.archtoronto.org/sacredheart to read the letter and to access numerous resources that can be used in the home, school or parish setting. The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is observed in 2021 on Friday, June 11 and you are encouraged to offer a special focus on the Sacred Heart in the month of June. The theme of the Sacred Heart, however, is pertinent throughout the year and the resources, prayers and reflections are helpful tools to utilize year round.

The Nativity of St. John the Baptist, June 24

John the Baptist, (between 8 & 4 BCE – about CE 27), according to all four Gospels the precursor of Jesus Christ, was born in Judaea, the son of the priest Zacharias and Elizabeth, cousin of Mary, the mother of Jesus. John was a Nazarite from birth and prepared for his mission by year of self-discipline in the desert. At about the age of 30 he went into the country around the River Jordan preaching penance to prepare for the imminent coming of the Messiah. He baptized penitents with water as a symbol of baptism of the Holy Spirit that was to come. With the baptism of Jesus, his office as precursor was accomplished, and his ministry came to a close soon afterwards. John angered Herod Antipas, the Judaeen ruler, by denouncing him for marrying Herodias, the wife of his half-brother Herod, and was imprisoned (see Luke 3:1-20). At the request of Salome, daughter of Herodias and Herod, John was beheaded (see Matthew 14:3-11). In art, John the Baptist is represented as wearing a garment made of hair and often carries a staff and a scroll with the words “Ecce Agnus Dei”, or “Behold the Lamb of God”, a reference to John 1:29.

THANK YOU FATHER

Each day of the year priests across our nation “father” their congregation, living in their every act the embodiment of our blessed Heavenly Father. This Father’s Day, let us include these most precious fathers in our celebrations. Take time to say thank you to your parish priest, local missionary or bishop. Perhaps there is some small act of kindness you can do to show your appreciation for your pastor’s love and devotion throughout the year. However we express it, let’s remember to pause and say thank you, Father, for caring for each of your spiritual children as well.

God our Father,

We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow. We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Amen
