JUNE 27th, 2021
THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing.

Jairus is described as a synagogue official, a man of considerable standing in the Jewish community. Distraught over his daughter's poor health, he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her. Although Mark doesn't provide many details, we can imagine that his daughter has been ill for some time and that her condition is deteriorating.

As Jesus leaves with Jairus, Mark describes a second person who seeks healing from Jesus, a woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. Jesus' disciples, always a little clueless in Mark's Gospel, help us envision the scene. The crowds are pushing in on Jesus, and yet he, knowing that power has gone out of him, asks who touched him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges what she has done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace.

At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. As if to build a sense of urgency, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. When they arrive at Jairus's home, they find family and friends mourning the girl's death. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.

The contrasts between Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage are stark and revealing. One is a man, the other is a woman. One is a public official, an important person in the community. The other is a woman who has lost everything to find a cure to a condition that separated her from the community. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. Yet in each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need.

CONGRATULATION GRADUATES.

Even though graduation was very different again this year we wish to congratulate all the graduates, to those going into High School in September, or those going onto post secondary education or to a new job. All the very best to you all.

Gracious God, you have united us all in one body. We give you thanks for the work of Fr. Gerard among us. As he leaves to a new congregation surround him with your Spirit. Give us the courage to release him to a new call and bless our remembering of the work that has been done among us. Guide Fr. Gerard and us as we continue to seek to share the Good News of salvation through your son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To St. Mary's Parishioners

Over the past 12 years and 6 months, St. Mary's Parish became home to me, and all of you have become family. We have experienced so much together over these past years, there were many joys and good days. Doing weekly masses, the sacraments, working with the schools, masses at our nursing homes, sharing your joy, preparing your families for baptism, and adults for RCIA, young couples for marriage to name a few. We also shared sorrows and the loss of family members, through the sacrament of the sick and funerals. There have been many parishioners who have touched by life.

I wish to thank all the organizations who have helped me to make this parish a family, Knights of Columbus, The CWL, St. Vincent de Paul, our Sacristans, Ted Van Boxmeer, Hilary Joseph, and Mary Thompson. Choirs, Trinity Band, Brian Rae and the cantors over the years, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, those who took communion to the nursing homes and shut-in's, altar servers, youth group, Jason DeHetre, Emilie Spence, Finance Council, Cemetery Board. It was a joy to work with all of you. Most of all I wish to thank Jayne Williams as secretary and Office Administrator she has helped me to make sure the parish is running smoothly. Behind every pastor, there is a good right hand person to see things through. To Connie Reid my housekeeper and Kenny Buchan as our caretaker. You all made my job easier to handle and manage. Thank you to all those who have sent cards and well wishes, gifts at this time. St. Mary's Collingwood will always have a spot in my heart and will be cherished with good memories.

May God's blessing be upon all of you
